Each Participant, including each of his riders and team members, authorizes the ASSOCIATION MOTO-CYCLECARISTE DE FRANCE SPORT (AMCF SPORT), to capture and fix, on any medium and by any means, his name, voice, image and more generally any performance carried out within the framework of the Bol d'Or (hereinafter referred to as the "Attributes of the Personality")

Each Participant, including each of its drivers and team members, authorizes AMCF SPORT to use and/or have used the Attributes of the Personality, in any form and on any existing or future medium, in any format, for any communication to the public throughout the world, and for any use, including for advertising and/or commercial purposes. Each Participant, including each of his/her drivers and team members, agrees that this authorization is granted without consideration of any kind, in particular financial. The Participant is responsible for obtaining this authorization from his drivers and team members.

The authorization granted by the Participant, his drivers and the members of his team to AMCF SPORT on the Attributes of the Personality is for a minimum period of ten years, tacitly and indefinitely renewable by periods of one year, each contractual period beginning on the anniversary date of the first day of the Bol d'Or in which the Participant participated. The Participant may terminate this authorization by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt addressed to the AMCF SPORT, giving two months notice prior to the end of each contractual period. Withdrawal of the authorisation to use the Personality Attributes shall not have retroactive effect and shall take effect from the end of the current contractual period.

This authorisation to use the Attributes of the Personality, granted by the Participant, his drivers and members of his team, is independent of the right to use the sporting events and competitions organised by AMCF SPORT in accordance with the provisions of Article L.331-1 of the French Sports Code.

2- Intellectual property rights

The Participant grants a license to AMCF SPORT, on a non-exclusive basis and free of charge, covering all of the following elements that may be covered by intellectual property rights: all copyrights, designs, trademarks, patents, and any other intellectual property rights (registered or not), and in particular the team name, the names and slogans associated with the team, the trademarks, designs, models and logos associated with the team and the team's motorcycle used by the Participant in the Bol d'Or (hereinafter the "Intellectual Property Rights" or "IPR"). This license on the IPR is granted for the whole world (for the trademarks, for the territories of protection), and for the whole legal duration of protection of the IPR.

The license on IPR aims in particular:

- The right of reproduction, permanent or temporary, the right of adaptation, the right of translation, the right of commercialization, on all existing or future media (in particular books, booklets, posters, postcards, miniature cars, DVD, video games, NFT, tokenizations and use in virtual universes of the metaverse type, clothing or home products and other derived products, etc.), in all commercial networks and under all brands, with a view in particular to the exploitation and sale, on line or off line, of elements containing IPR as well as their use for commercial, information, demonstration, promotion or advertising purposes, and this in particular within the framework of promotional, cultural, press and/or public relations operations;
- The right of communication to the public, in all places accessible to the public, in particular by television broadcasting, cable distribution, satellite broadcasting, online broadcasting, including in web 3.0, and in general, by all vectors or networks (in particular analog or digital, telecommunication and computer networks, including the Internet), with a view in particular to the commercial exploitation of elements containing IPR and/or their use for purposes of information, demonstration, promotion, publicity, and this in particular within the framework of promotional, cultural, press and/or public relations operations ;
- The right to sub-license elements containing IPR to any third party, with a view to their commercial or non-commercial exploitation in the context of the organization, promotion and marketing of the Bol d'Or;

The Participant guarantees to be the owner of all intellectual property rights attached to the IPR. Where applicable, the Participant undertakes to obtain from his sponsors, equipment suppliers, manufacturers and other rights holders all the authorizations necessary for the exploitation of the IPR under the conditions defined in this article.

This authorisation to use the IPR granted by the Participant is independent of the right to use the sporting events and competitions organised by AMCF SPORT in accordance with the provisions of Article L.331-1 of the French Sports Code.
